

Experience New England and Iceland in a delicious new way

We have another exciting culinary adventure to share with you, and you're invited to experience this tantalizing and enticing Icelandic adventure!

The 2017 Connoisseur's Cruise with Chef Alan Wong sets sail from New York on May 19 aboard the award-winning Crystal Symphony, bound for Reykjavik, Iceland and promises to be an amazing and energizing experience. The 12-day journey includes visits to a number of New England's most intriguing and visually stunning ports of call, before reaching the illusive Land of Fire and Ice, with its incredible landscapes and endless natural beauty. All shore excursions are included and highly customized to complete this culinary journey. An optional 3-night pre-cruise culinary adventure in New York City is also available for those with a cosmopolitan panache and an appetite for great food.

Early bookings are suggested as a limited number of premium staterooms are still available. Don't miss out on this unique oceanic and savory cruise event. Please call Seawind Tours & Travel, Inc. today at (808) 949-4144 and ask for Randy or Zach to reserve your stateroom and exclusive Connoisseur's Cruise inclusions.

We are excited for another great adventure exploring these destinations. We hope to have you set sail with us!
